

TSA Salary Survey Results

December 2014

Trainee Surveyor – Will suit school leaver or recent graduate. Preferably with an interest in Maths and Geography. Must be willing to travel. On the job training will be provided.

Less than £10000 - 0%

£10000 - £12000 - 16%

£12000 - £14000 - 38%

£14000 - £16000 - 32%

More than £16000 - 14%

Assistant Land Surveyor – Must have two years relevant surveying experience. Knowledge of basic surveying principles and clean driving licence required. Full training will be given.

Less than £14000 - 0%

£14000 - £16000 - 27%

£16000 - £18000 - 35%

£18000 - £20000 - 30%

More than £20000 - 8%

Land Surveyor – Minimum of four years relevant surveying experience. Must be able to work on own initiative and liaise with clients when necessary. Clean driving licence required and be willing to travel extensively.

Less than £16000 - 0%

£16000 - £20000 - 5%

£20000 – £24000 - 60%

£24000 - £28000 - 30%

More than £28000 - 5%

Senior Land Surveyor – Must have a minimum of six years relevant survey experience and be capable of running a team. Extensive travel will be required as will job estimating and client liaison. Ideally RICS or ICES qualified or in the process of applying for.

Less than £24000 - 3%

£24000 - £28000 - 19%

£28000 - £32000 - 43%

£32000 - £36000 - 32%

More than £36000 - 3%